

Chong An Sunim JDPS

Chong An Sunim JDPS was given inka on August 26, 1999, becoming the first Hungarian to be given this authority as a teacher in the history of Korean Buddhism. One of the most senior members of the Budapest Zen Center, he became a monk in 1994 and spent the next five years training under Zen Master Seung Sahn at the Seoul International Zen Center. He is the guiding teacher for Hungary and the instigator of the project to create Won Kwang Sa temple, near Eszergom. He also teaches in other countries throughout Europe.

■ Articles

---

This article copyright © 2009 Kwan Um School of Zen